

Dances of Universal Peace PNW Regional Spring Dance Retreat
Stepping Into The Sacred Moment
Return to the Dances

Camp Lutherwood, Cheshire, Oregon May 16 - 18 2025

featuring:
Munájat

Munájat loves creating community through music and dance. She has led the Dances all around the Pacific Northwest, currently in Olympia (olypeacedances.org) where she lives with her husband Bruce and a multi-generational household on a secret lake.

Prior to retiring, she brought a spirit of play and interbeing to children as a Waldorf and Music and Movement teacher. She sees the Dances as an elixir, a remedy, a tonic for the suffering world, where longing for connection is so evident. Her greatest challenge is balancing Doing and Being, and she hopes to share that journey with retreat attendees.

"It is probable that the next Buddha will not take the form of an individual. The next Buddha may take the form of a community, a community practicing understanding and loving kindness, a community practicing mindful living. This may be the most important thing we can do for the survival of the earth."

— Thich Nhat Hanh

Christo and Mariko are beloveds on the Sufi Path of the Heart. They believe in the One Truth found within all wisdom traditions and are honored to share the practice of the Dances of Universal Peace. Leading Dances in Eugene, OR., their dream of bringing the Dances to a wider community through conscious festivals, events, and retreats is coming true.
